WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
GRADUATE'S PLEDGE

I pledge myself

To accept the duties and responsibilities imposed upon me as an American citizen:

To use all the facilities which this free country has given me
for continuing to grow in mind and spirit;

To participate honorably
in the civic life of our nation;

Never to discriminate against any man
because of his race, his creed, or his color and to oppose all who do so;

To worship God as my conscience dictates;

To honor and defend my country
with my faith, my work, and my life;

And to strive for the peace and welfare of all human kind.

This I pledge to you,

my parents, my teachers, my community,
who have made it possible for me to enjoy the privileges of a land in wihch these ideals are upheld.

I pledge it

so that my generation and my posterity may keep marching

AT ANNUAL YEARBOOK DANCE

MEMORY LANE DANCE

The "Memory Lane" dance is the traditional dance of W.H.S. that kicks off the sales of subscriptions. This year Barbara Millar from homeroom 913 won the drawing for a free yearbook.

The seven senior homerooms elected seven girls to be on the Memory Lane court. Sandy Agala from homeroom 914 was crowned Queen. She was escorted by Tom Forsey. Members of her court were: Stephanie Johnson, Connie Way, Sandy Lewandowski, Joan Landman, Dorothy Meek, and Paulette Young. They were escorted by: Decatur Smith, Jerry Kwiatkowski, Nick Morenc, Terry Hall, Bob Krempec, and Albert VanOoteghem respectively.

These are

Washington's

Activities . . .

. . . that are shared by the student body. The "pony" and "twist" at the dances, the crowning of queens and their courts, and class elections play an important part in the various activities.

We can't forget the Senior and Junior Proms, and the students' reactions to school pictures and report cards. This is the excitement and fun of W.H.S. These are the special events that make 1963 different from any other year.

THE STARS . . .

On the night of our Junior Prom the Progress Club was truly a replica of a "Stairway to the Stars." The imitation ceiling of blue and white crepe paper with millions of stars covering it provided the background for a night of dancing and many lasting memories of our Junior Prom, April 28, 1962.

The court consisted of Susie Dlugosz, Claudia Miller, Carolyn Brown, Dixie Raspovits, Prince Bob Bloss, Princess Janice Milliken, Jim Molnar, Bob Krempec, Bill Kaplachinski, and Jim Kaczmarek.

Attention is centered on Jane as the boys appeal for her affection.

"LEAVE IT TO JANE"

Leave It to Jane, a musical enjoyed by all, was a story centered around Atwater College, and a very popular girl named Jane. Jane tries very hard to get Billy Bolten, the All American halfback to like her and not to attend Bingham, Atwater College's rival.

As the second act progresses, the students of Atwater realize they are adults. The play ends with Atwater winning the important game; everyone being triumphant—everyone but "Athletic Bessie," that is. As Bessie goes off stage singing "If I'd Only Been a Boy," the evening of fun and frolic for the audience was at an end.

This Jerome Kern play was directed by Mr. Harbin and Mr. Fitzhenry.

A trio sings "Sir Galahad"

The cast is joyous after a trying experience.

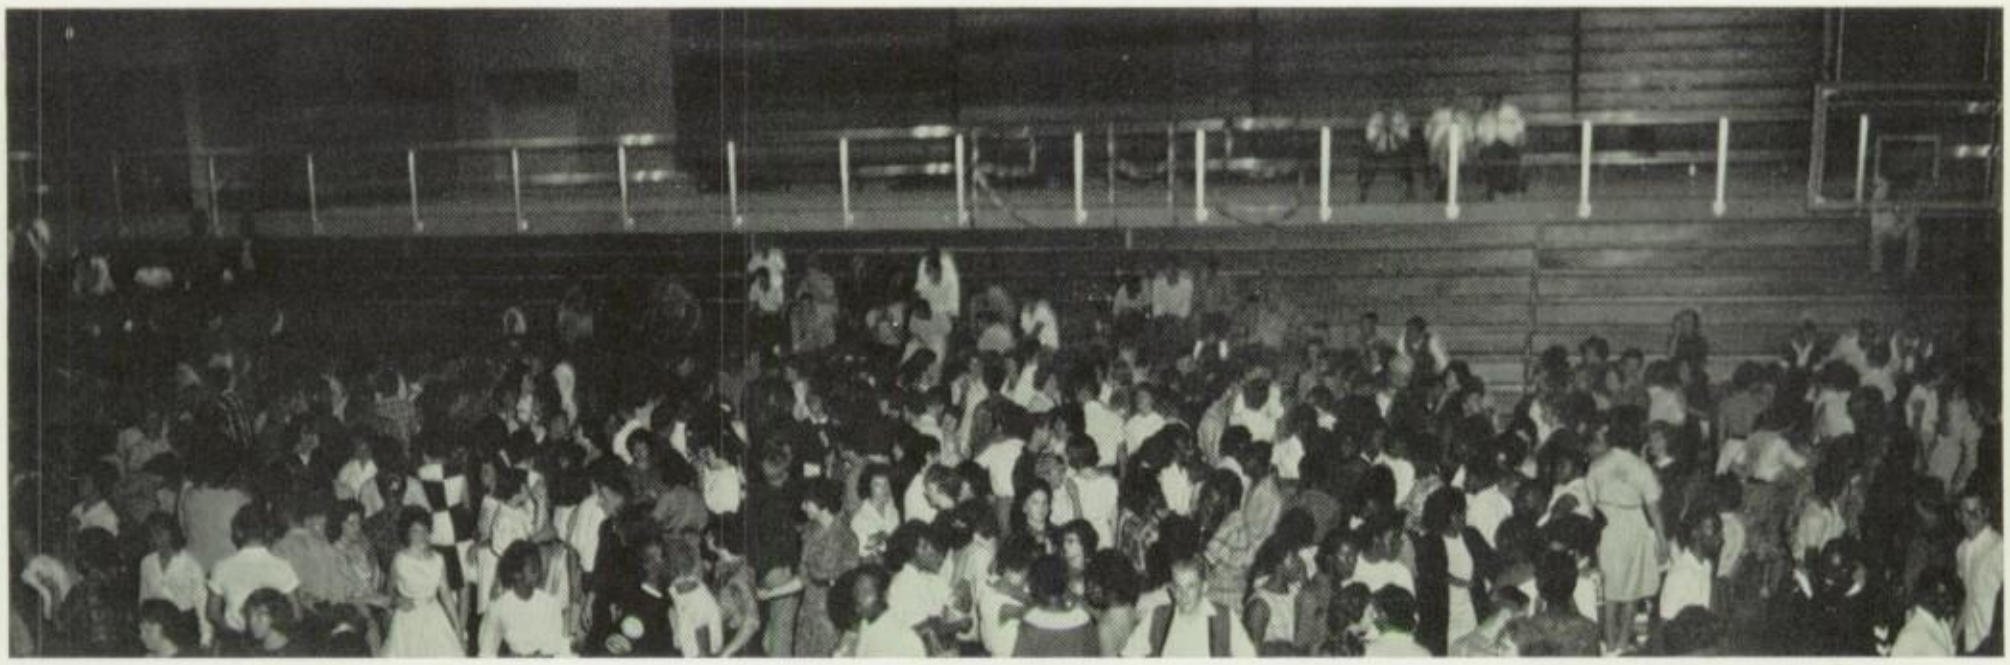
SPARKLE TO FOOTBALL SEASON



A good time was had by all.

Our Queen and her escort

The Riley Roundup, a traditional celebration held each year prior to the Washington-Riley Football Game, was held in the W.H.S. gymnasium. Reigning over the affair was Carol Stammich. The Queen's Court was: Carol DeGraeve, Susie Dlugosz, Christine Ferris, JoAnn Janczak, Karen Pendl, Diane Robison. Their escorts were: Jim Ebel, Dick Sinkiewicz, Mike Zrobek, Jim Dinges, Bob Bloss, John Stacey, and Gene Nimtz.

SENIORS TWIST . . .

"Blue Mist" was the theme of the Senior Party which took place November 17, 1962. Music was provided by the "Islanders" and refreshments were served by selected Junior girls. The cafeteria was beautifully accented in blue decorations. Since this was our last school party, many seniors attended and helped to make it a success.

The Booster Club has primarily one function, that being to promote school spirit and participation in school activities. Any student is eligible for membership. Through the year many projects are sponsored by the Booster Club. Some of these projects are selling programs, decorating goal posts for home football games, holding dances, and organizing the Washington-Central Basketball Court. The money raised from these projects is used for various necessities at Washington High School.

The W.H.S. Girls Athletic Association serves a vital purpose in our program of physical fitness. This club urges the girls to participate in athletics and promote health and sportsmanship ideals. Some of its other purposes are to build character, friendliness, to teach leadership and respect for others. This club also provides tournaments—both intramural and between other schools.

In addition to athletics, the G.A.A. also sponsors dances, has bake sales, and various other activities.

There are no requirements to join the G.A.A.

The Home Economics Club, which is sponsored by Miss Pfaff, was created with the homemaker in mind. The members receive training in homemaking by serving at school functions and P.T.A. meetings, by sewing club aprons and by doing various other jobs. Anyone who has a semester in Home Economics or an interest in it is eligible for membership in this club.

FINES BASS

Every year twelve boys are selected to attend South Bend's three business clubs, four to each club. They are chosen by our principal, Mr. McNamara, with the aid of the faculty. Mr. McNamara is very careful in picking these junior businessmen. He wants boys who will make a good impression and represent Washington well. The boys must be high scholastically, active in extracurricular activities, and be pleasing personality wise. Being chosen is indeed an honor. Congratulations, boys!

LIBRARY CLUB–

Row 3: C. Rinke, J. Rivers, L. Carstens, L. Bourden, J. Brown, M. Krol, D. Balsbaugh, R. Powers

The Library Club is another of the Service Clubs at Washington. Checking, mending, and shelving books are some of the many routine duties that each member performs daily.

To be a member of the Library Club a person must have and maintain a "B" average and must sacrifice a study hall in the interest of serving others.

Row 4: J. Bogucki, D. Kaczorowski, D. Grontkowski, D. Szabo, J. Jerzykowski, D. Heck, P. Hominiuk, C. Rice, W. Regulinski

The Rod and Gun Club is a new activity at Washington. It was formed to teach safe handling of fire arms and promote soil and wild life conservation. The boys have speakers, films, and demonstrations at their meetings which promote interest in hunting and fishing. Members do a lot of trap shooting and fishing together. It is a fine club for boys with a love for nature.

The Y-Teens is a service organization for girls. The organization's activities are directly connected with the Y.W.C.A. Some of the projects the Y-Teens participated in during the past year were the Y-Teen Carnival, which promoted World Fellowship, Officer's Training, which was designed to acquaint Y-Teen officers with their duties, and the Y-Teen's Annual Prom, a City-Wide formal dance.

In the fall the Y-Teens have a membership drive. They meet monthly and plan projects in which everyone can participate.

These are

. . . that contribute honor and sportsmanship to our school. The boys who participate possess great initiative as well as physical ability. The cheerleaders deserve recognition also, for they cheer our team on to victory.

As in football, our other teams usually have an equally successful season. The teams always do their best to bring back more victories and less defeats for Washington High.

The Panthers completed a most successful season with a record of 8-1. They were sparked all year by the shifty and speedy running of Al Carothers and a sparkling defense which held six of their nine opponents to less than 100 yards. The only mar in the record came at the hands of LaPorte who scored a touchdown with 1:11 to go in the game to win 12-7.

At the end of the season the Panthers found themselves in a three way tie for the Conference Championship with Riley and LaPorte. A draw was held to determine who would play in the play-off and Riley won.

"Panthers we are proud of you."

WASHINGTON WINS HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

Row 1: J. Forray, R. Bethel, B. Bloss, L. Kinney, L. Zakrocki

The 1963 varsity cagers wrapped up their season by being upset in the semi-finals of the Sectionals by Mishawaka 64-61. The Panthers found the season rough going at times when playing three of the top ten teams in Indiana and the number one team in Michigan.

The season was highlighted by victories over city rivals and the number two team in the State, in the Championship of the Holiday Tournament.

Leading the Panthers this year were, senior co-captain Recie Bethel and junior center Ben Lindsey. With four underclassmen in the starting lineup for the sectionals, coach Subby Nowicki is looking optimistically toward next year.

Our "B" team cagers finished with an 18-2 season record and a sparkling 9-0 record in conference play to bring home the E.N.I.H.S.C. "B" team title. They were led by the fine shooting of Tom Majewski and F. Kerr, who was moved up to varsity at the end of the season. Another and perhaps the most important reason why the cagers had such a fine season was because of the fine coaching efforts of Mr. Lewandowski.

MR. McNAMARA'S ADDRESS TO SENIORS

Farewell seniors! Our best wishes for good lives go with you. You have come a long way, you have a longer way yet to go, but you are well started.

Each baby is born into the world as ignorant as he is naked, as prone to error as he is innocent, no more knowing than his remotest and most primitive human ancestor. Great potential for both good and evil was in each of you only a few short years ago when you were born. That you have come as far as you have in understanding your world, in mastering the complicated skills it requires, in grasping and accepting the natural and God-given moral system which controls society, and in achieving kindness and love of your fellow man is a tribute both to the native raw material from which we come and to the several processes for controlled growth and development through which your society has educated you. Education is really the difference between us and our bone-through-the-nose brothers and ancestors. We take it for granted that American youth is civilized and we become pretty indignant when he shows evidence of primitiveness, but it is really pretty amazing and gratifying that the basic model of man can be modified as quickly and as considerably as it is done.

This gives us ground for an optimistic view since we are gaining steadily in what would seem to be an impossible task: Not only are we meeting the quantitative educational challenge of our rising birth rate; we are also gaining qualitatively. Average achievement scores are going up, school work is getting harder but is being done better, and we are understanding one another better and hating one another less. In some ways at least your generation is doing better than mine. The question is whether it is doing enough better.

Yours is a big job. Problems get tougher, answers have to be righter, the penalty for failure grows worse. You go heavily burdened, but you are able. Good luck, God bless you, and keep sweet!

IN MEMORIAM

Bonnie Marie Star, a member of the class of 1963, passed away on January 17, 1961, while in her sophomore year. Bonnie's contributions to the class and her devotion to classmates, friends, and faculty at Washington High School will always be remembered and cherished.

BONNIE MARIE STAR

These are

Washington's

Underclassmen . . .

. . . who work toward the most important and final step in high school—graduation.

Until that day which comes only too quickly they all enjoy each new and fun-filled year at Washington High. These underclassmen anticipate many things such as class rings, National Honor Society, Senior activities, and perhaps preparation for college. As the Seniors leave W.H.S. the underclassmen will continue to uphold its traditions and honor.
